Dear Harold,

"Sirhan has talked several times subsequent to Robert Kennedy's death about an occult group from London - - - - . There was one Process member named Lloyd who was working as a Chef - - - for either The Ambassador or The Sheraton. - - - Sirhan seems to have visited a friend who worked in the kitchen of The Ambassador Hotel the day" before he shot Senator Kennedy.

Add this to other known facts about The Process Church of The Final Judgement as per Sanders The Family.

The Church was: International (Germany, England, Mexico), well financed (owned a Greek Yacht), incorporated in New Orleans on Jan. 29, 1968 listing its address as 1205 Royal St., posed as scientologists, used Nazi beliefs, used drugs/hypnosis, tried to get on The Joey Bishop Show, and" dropped out of sight in L.A. after R.F.K. was shot.

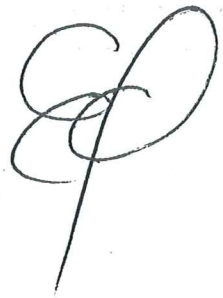
Penetration of such a group by a domestic intelligence agency is not unlikely.

The details of the assassinations are covered by fronts and sub-fronts.

The "Coup" concept was brilliant.

The thematic presentation of Heritage was well done but its factual errors left it badly flawed.

The presentation of the assassinations seem in the context of The Warfare State is viable.

What's new?


Best Wishes,
